Tamil Nadu Agricultural University (TNAU)

Cauvery Delta Zone Crop Planning & Water Management Guide (2023)

1. Agro-Climatic Zone Profile: Cauvery Delta

The Cauvery Delta Zone enjoys alluvial fertile soils with canal irrigation networks and receives rainfall fr

2. Cauvery Delta Zone – Rice Cultivation

Transplanted wetland rice requires 1200-1400 mm of water throughout its crop growth cycle. For the Ku

3. Water Saving Technologies in Rice Cultivation

Alternate Wetting and Drying (AWD) irrigation methodology saves 15-25% water without reducing grain

4. Rice Fallow Pulses - Cauvery Delta

Blackgram (Urad bean) and Greengram are ideal rice-fallow relay crops sown 4-6 days prior to rice har

Sesame (Gingelly) is cultivated extensively as a summer rice-fallow or Kharif semi-dry crop, requiring 350-400 mm with high market demand and economic returns.